Weeklong Prayer Initiative Begins March 28

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- For seven consecutive days, beginning March 28, Cedarville University's Global Outreach Council will host a prayer initiative for the nations open to the Cedarville University community.

Global Outreach is an organization that exists to prepare and organize the Cedarville University community to know, live and share the Gospel. They accomplish this through locating opportunities for students to serve all over the world, whether across the street or overseas.

Starting on Palm Sunday, March 28, this 24-hour-a-day, 7-day-long prayer focus will take place until Easter Sunday, April 3.

"Our desire for this event is for the student body and community to acknowledge the reality that there are billions of people around the world who have not heard the Gospel," said Amanda Hines, member of the events team for Global Outreach Council.

Faculty, alumni, parents and students are welcome to sign up for a time of prayer by clicking on this link.

Groups of Cedarville students can sign up with their discipleship groups, hallmates or friends, and they will be emailed prayer prompts for every 30 minutes during the weeklong initiative. 336 different unreached people groups will be represented. "Even with us praying for a different people group every 30 minutes, we will not even scratch the surface of the lostness in our world today," said Hines.

This is the first time that Global Outreach has hosted an event like this, and they wanted to make it convenient for students, who can pray with a sports team, an organization or with roommates.

"We are hoping that this event opens the eyes of our students and community to the need for missions and the need to pray for the nations," Hines said.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 4,550 undergraduate, graduate, and online students in more than 150 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is one of the largest private universities in Ohio, recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, including the Bachelor of Arts in International Studies program, strong graduation, and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings, and high student engagement ranking. For more information about the University, visit www.cedarville.edu.
